

The biggest pizza event ever organized in Germany is taking place this year from September 15th to the 21st!

A week, over 300 restaurants throughout Germany, one great offer: 15 € for a pizza and a spritz. That's the True Italian Pizza Week's sixth edition, taking place from September 15th to the 21st. After last year's success (over 25k sold menus), the event is taking place again in the same 12 German cities this year (Berlin, Leipzig, Hamburg, Hanover, Münster, Munich, Nuremberg, Stuttgart, Cologne, Frankfurt, Düsseldorf and Mannheim) plus other pizzerias all around Germany who accepted to take part. Instead of being competitors, Germany's best pizzerias have joined forces to celebrate the qualities of real Italian pizza with an event.

The most important aspect is not where pizza makers or the owners of the restaurant come from, but rather how careful they are to each small single detail that makes a pizza great. The ingredients are a big part of it (from the tomato sauce, which must respect top quality standards, to the choice of the right mozzarella), but also the observance of the actual time span the dough needs to rise (at least 12 hours), and to the oven used to bake the pizza - which should be ideally wood-fired or at least able to reach really high temperatures in a short period of time - is crucial to a successful outcome. The True Italian Pizza Week is the biggest event dedicated to the symbol of Italian cuisine in Germany (Neapolitan pizza has also been a UNESCO World Heritage Site since 2017). Thanks to an Instagram photo contest, participants can also win a trip to Naples for two.

True Italian Pizza Week 2022: how it works. The True Italian Pizza Week 2022 takes place from 15th to 21st September in selected pizzerias of the already mentioned cities. During the week, you can try a special menu right at the participating restaurants: an authentic Italian pizza (there is always a choice between two) together with an Aperol Spritz or a non-alcoholic Crodino for only 15 €. An entrance ticket for the event is not required. You just need to go to the participating venues and ask for the event offer. A special map is available for each city, both as a flyer and on Google Maps: all pizzerias participating in the event are shown on these maps.

True Italian Pizza Week 2022: the Instagram contest. Thanks to True Italian Pizza Week, you can also win some great prizes: a trip to Naples for two people, an Ooni brand oven to make pizza professionally at home and three Aperol surprise packages. Just take a photo of a pizza or someone eating it in one of the participating restaurants during the event (use your creativity!), post it with the hashtags #trueitalianpizzaweek and #togetherwithaperol tagging the trueitalianfood profile and locating the restaurant and cross your fingers. You can find further information soon on True Italian's social media channels.
